About the AAADA

- > The AAADA is the leading industry body representing antique and art dealers in Australia.
- > Our members operate well established businesses, are respected for their expertise in their chosen fields, and continually seek to expand that knowledge.
- > The AAADA is consulted by government agencies and collectors societies on all matters relating to antiques and art.
- > AAADA members offer professional advice and a commitment to advancing the understanding of antiques and art in the Australian community.

OUR AIMS

- > To promote the appreciation and preservation of antiques and art.
- > Ensure a professional standard that protects the value of items purchased.
- > Fully describe our products and stand behind our sales descriptions.
- > Adhere to the AAADA 'Code of Practice' which clearly outlines our responsibilities to customers.
- > Maintain high ethical standards and comply with all Government and statutory requirements.

OUR SERVICES

- > Conduct workshops, lectures and seminars for the public on a range of antiques and art subjects.
- > Provide an extensive website with a complete membership listing of both dealers and service providers, with: contact details, category specialties and links to their websites.
- > Provide referral to providers of quality ancillary services, through our 'Approved Service Providers' scheme.
- > Conduct fully vetted quality shows and exhibitions.
- > Provide a Conciliation Service to facilitate the resolution of disputes.

AAADA PRESENCE ON THE WEB

The AAADA is also accessible on the World Wide Web. Peruse our site at your leisure, to seek out the nearest member who deals in the items you are looking for and search items they have for sale. All the information is available from the comfort of your home or office at: www.aaada.org.au
See page 45 for details.

NATIONAL TRADE REPRESENTATION

We maintain contact with Federal and State Ministers for the Arts, The Federal Bureau of Customs, State Police Departments and National and State Galleries, who may seek our points of view and expertise. Many of our members act in an advisory or professional capacity re Government or Tax Department concessions for gifts to the nation, as well as acting for Customs in evaluating items with import and export implications.

CINOA

Through our delegates to the Confédération Internationale des Négociants en Oeuvres d'Art (CINOA), we keep abreast of international developments affecting every aspect of the antiques and art trade. Foreign Governments recognise the expertise of members of the AAADA for the verification of antiques and fine art for customs purposes. All AAADA members are members of CINOA.

AAADA Show, Sydney 2010

The tenth annual Australian Antique & Art Dealers Association Antiques and Fine Arts Show will be held in Sydney, at The AJC Royal Randwick Racecourse, opening with a Gala Preview on the evening of September 8th and opening daily until Sunday September 12, 2010, showcasing an extraordinary collection of antiques and art from all over the world. The Australian Antique & Art Dealers Association Show is the only antiques & fine arts show endorsed and vetted by the AAADA. See page 44 for details.

Workshops, Lectures and Seminars

The AAADA conducts series of workshops, lectures and seminars from time to time in Sydney. They represent a unique opportunity for members of the public to gain greater insight and knowledge in areas of specific interest. To register your interest in, or for more information about the New South Wales series please telephone Adrienne Wilson: (02) 9332 3882.

AAADA Approved Service Providers

In this brochure you will find a listing by category and State, of members of the AAADA's Approved Service Providers Scheme. The individuals and businesses listed are chosen and recommended by our members for their abilities to provide ancillary services which are in keeping with the specialised skills required for maintaining, repairing and safe keeping of your most treasured objects. Whilst taking no responsibility for the work performed by the Approved Service Providers our members do recommend them for their competence and professionalism.

Purchasing Antiques

As a new buyer of antiques and art the AAADA allows you to buy well, accurately and with purpose. There is no other way to purchase antiques and art where the object is guaranteed, the transaction of the highest professional standard, with a worldwide access to specialists in all fields. Members of the AAADA represent the peak in their field in Australia. All members of the AAADA are also members of C.I.N.O.A - Confédération Internationale des Négociants en Oeuvres d'Art, founded in 1935, representing 28 art and antique associations from 19 countries and some five thousand affiliate dealers located worldwide. Membership is limited to associations which require their members to adhere to extremely strict quality and standards of expertise.

The objects and works of art sold by members of the AAADA represent all times and all cultures. This is the essence of the collecting habit and the essence of human culture. These works are at once stylish, life giving and beautiful. Whether wearable, as with jewellery, an antiquity from the most far flung reaches of human artistry, superb eighteenth century furniture, rare Chinese textiles or an investment quality Australian banknote, the choice is enticing and the path endless.

So how to begin? Browse through our member listings in this handbook, or via our web portal www.aaada.org.au to find a business that deals in your chosen area or an item in a members gallery.

Speak with the dealer—meet them, and discuss your needs or dreams.

Our members may suggest what may be an excellent new area for you to collect. Perhaps to rationalize existing items or to achieve new fields of collecting; how to live with style; to spend wisely; or to be introduced to professional conservators or a wonderful decorator.

AAADA Service Providers have chosen fields of expertise that represent the highest Australian and often international standards. These skills compliment the objects held by members of the AAADA. Ultimately, through trust and education, these relationships become those of a lifetime. Many of our client relationships span generations. This demonstrates the excellence within their field that members of the AAADA offer to clients unlike any other way of purchasing Antiques and Fine Art. I encourage you to explore the purchasing of a wonderful object from a member of the AAADA. One is never enough!

Look for our logo in the galleries and shops that you visit. It is your guarantee of quality, expertise and good service.

Please contact the AAADA for additional FREE copies of this nation-wide list of members and services and detailed information about the Educational Workshops.

The President

The Australian Antique & Art Dealers Association
P.O. Box 24, Malvern 3144 Victoria Australia

Code of Practice

1a. All goods to be sold to the public by Association members shall have a label or ticket attached to or immediately adjacent to the item in question.

1b. Such labels or tickets must give as much reasonable information as possible about the goods and this shall normally include such detail as:

- The full price
- A circa date of manufacture (or the actual year if hallmarked or dated)
- The material (eg. walnut, bronze, etc.)
- The maker's mark or artist's name if relevant/known
- Any major restoration or later additions
- If reproduction

1c. Where this is undesirable or impractical for security or other grounds the full price shall be written on a price list or in a stock book, with a full description to identify the article, and will be available at all times during business hours for inspection by the public on request. N.B. In the case of 1c, there shall be a prominent notice stating: Written prices of all goods offered for sale may be examined on request by members of the public.

2. The member shall not attempt to confuse or mislead the customer or falsely describe any of the goods he/she offers for sale or seeks to purchase. He/she shall in all respects comply with the provisions of the Australian Trade Practices Act and/or any State legislation of a particular nature.

3. Description details as indicated on the label and as offered verbally shall be written on a proper invoice which shall state the name, address and telephone number of the member and date of the transaction.

4. Members shall accept responsibility for descriptions of items given to members of the public by their staff. Staff must be appraised of all the requirements of the Association's Code of Practice.

5. Members shall not make unsolicited visits to private domestic premises.

6. Members shall apply standards of fair dealing equally to the public, members or non members.

7. Members have no authority to act on behalf of or speak for the Association, save insofar as expressly authorised by the Executive.
8. Members shall not state or imply that membership of the Association is a guarantee of authenticity of any article offered for sale or that membership entitles them to any special standing insofar as authentication of articles is concerned. Responsibility for all claims or statements as to the authenticity lies solely with the member.
9. Professional valuations carried out by members (ie. for a fee) shall be provided in writing, signed and dated, and worded to indicate clearly their purpose ie. for Insurance (replacement value) or for Probate (market value) in accordance with the guidelines set down from time to time by the Association.
10. Members are required to cooperate to the best of their ability with customer protection agencies (eg. the police, trading standards authorities).
11. Members shall at all times seek to advance the professional reputation and standing of the Association by acting in an honourable fashion and by promoting the knowledge and understanding of Antiques and Fine Arts within the Australian community.

CONCILIATION SERVICE

Should an occasion arise where either the customer or dealer feel they have been unfairly treated, the AAADA Conciliation Service will provide prompt and informal conciliation when the customer and the member are not able to resolve their dispute.

Details may be obtained from:

The Secretary

Australian Antique & Art Dealers Association

PO Box 24
Malvern Victoria 3144

Approved Service
Providers 2010

Code of Practice

1. Written quotes will be provided for all work prior to the commencement of that work and will include (if appropriate) costs of materials, costs of labour and any other considerations. Quotes shall be adhered to provided that no longer period than three (3) months has elapsed since the supply of such quote, unless other works are mutually agreed to by both parties prior to and during the completion of the work, and that this has been noted and endorsed by both parties to the agreement, at the time that the alteration came into effect.
2. Professional services such as Fine Art Packing, Carriage, Valuations and Consultations, Jewellery, Silver, Porcelain and other repairs, will where appropriate, clearly define the methods to be employed, materials to be used, service to be provided and an advance written estimate of the cost of the complete service.
3. All work or services provided will be guaranteed against faulty materials and workmanship, and where appropriate, will be guaranteed against defects for a period of no less than twelve (12) months.
4. Approved Service Providers shall accept responsibility for services offered, work carried out or quotes given by their staff. Staff must be appraised of all requirements in the Association's Code of Practice.
5. Any Approved Service Provider who accepts an advance payment or deposit for services shall clearly record in writing the terms of the contract, and by what period the full amount is to be paid. A copy of the terms is to be supplied to the customer at the time.
6. Complaints regarding faulty workmanship or dissatisfaction with any services provided should firstly be taken up with the provider of the service, and in the event where no amicable solution can be reached, the complainant may put their case in writing to The Australian Antique & Art Dealers Association Arbitrator, who will attempt to mediate the dispute without affecting either parties' rights in law.
7. Approved Service Providers shall not state or imply that membership of the Approved Services Scheme entitles them to any special standing insofar as authenticity or quality of service offered is concerned. Responsibility for all claims on statements as to authenticity or quality of service lies solely with the member.
8. Approved Service Providers have no authority to act on behalf of or speak for the Association, save insofar as expressly authorised by the Executive.

Conciliation Service

Should an occasion arise where either the customer or service provider feel they have been unfairly treated, the AAADA Conciliation Service will provide prompt and informal conciliation.

Attention is expressly drawn to the fact that nothing in the above conditions shall affect the legal rights or obligations of any party to a dispute.

AON

 RISK SERVICES

It may not be an art, but at Aon, we have made insurance broking a craft

Aon Risk Services Australia is a longstanding insurance specialist, providing customised insurance for antiques and fine arts.

We are a worldwide industry leader and the largest insurance broker in Australia.

Unlike some of our competitors within the area of fine arts and antiques insurance, Aon does not have mutually exclusive deals with single insurers.

Instead, we are able to offer our clients access to the best insurance options available for their particular requirements, whether the right insurer is based in Australia or overseas.

Aon will work on your behalf to arrange insurance for physical loss or damage in regards to:

- Private and corporate collections
- Commercial stock
- Exhibitions/trade fairs
- Business contents
- House and contents
- Consequential loss (or loss of profits)
- Public and products liability
- Goods in transit
- Professional indemnity
- Defective title
